

Seshadripuram Educational Trust Seshadripuram Evening Degree College

#27, Nagappa Street, Seshadripuram, Bengaluru – 560 020, Karnataka, INDIA

Affiliated to Bengaluru City University

An Internal Quality Assurance Cell Initiative

Department of English

In association with

Pázmány Péter Catholic University Budapest, Hungary

and

Bangalore University English Teachers' Association (BUETA)

Organizes

International Webinar

On

THE PLEASURE OF TEACHING SHAKESPEARE (Chapter-15)

05th November, 2022 (Saturday)

5.30 PM IST

(2:00 PM Budapest, Hungary,

11:00 PM Sydney NSW, Australia)

Click here to join directly

Theme Speaker-1

Theme: The pleasures of discovery: finding Shakespeare in genre films

Dr. Kinga Földváry

Pázmány Péter Catholic University
Budapest, Hungary

Kinga Földváry graduated at Eötvös Loránd University as a teacher of English and Hungarian language and literature. She was awarded her PhD degree at the Renaissance and Baroque English Literature doctoral programme, also at ELTE, in 2005. Her doctoral research focused on Shakespeare's tragedies, with a close reading of Hamlet and King Lear in the centre. She started teaching at Pázmány Péter Catholic University in 2003, since 2021 as a reader (associate professor) at the Institute of English and American Studies. Her most recent research interests include problems of genre in film adaptations of Shakespeare's plays, twentieth and twenty-first century Anglophone literature, and theories of visual and popular culture. She has published widely in journals and essay collections, has edited several volumes of essays and journal special issues, and is a regular participant at conferences at home and abroad. She is the author of Cowboy Hamlets and Zombie Romeos: Shakespeare in Genre Film (MUP, 2020).

Theme Speaker-2

Theme: 'Projecting Shakespeare: Shakespeare Reloaded and the Edge of Chaos.'

Prof. Liam Semler

Professor of Early Modern Literature
Discipline of English
The University of Sydney, Australia

Liam E. Semler is Professor of Early Modern Literature at the University of Sydney. He leads the Better Strangers educational research project which hosts the Shakespeare Reloaded website (shakespearereloaded.edu.au) and he is series editor (with Gillian Woods) of the Cambridge Elements 'Shakespeare and Pedagogy' series. His new book, co-edited with Claire Hansen and Jacqueline Manuel, is Reimagining Shakespeare Education: Teaching and Learning through Collaboration (forthcoming CUP, 2023). He is author of The English Mannerist Poets and the Visual Arts (1998) and Teaching Shakespeare and Marlowe: Learning versus the System (2013), and editor of Coriolanus: A Critical Reader (2021), The Early Modern Grotesque: English Sources and Documents 1500-1700 (2019) and Eliza's Babes, or the Virgin's Offering (1652) (2001). He has co-edited Storytelling: Critical and Creative Approaches (2013); Teaching Shakespeare beyond the Centre: Australasian Perspectives (2013); What is the Human? Australian Voices from the Humanities (2012); and Word and Self Estranged in English Texts, 1550-1660 (2010).

Guest of Honor

Sri P.C. Narayana

Chairman
Governing Council

Presided by

Sri W. D. Ashok

Trustee

Seshadripuram Educational Trust

W.D. Ashok holds a Masters Degree in Pharmacy Specialized in the field of Total Parenteral Nutrition. He served at the famous Al-Adan Hospital, Kuwait over 13 years. He is a Trustee of Seshadripuram Educational Trust. Sir is the backbone for all the events conducted in our Evening Degree College.

Click here for registration and E-certificate

Zoom Meeting ID

Meeting ID : 398 488 0712

Passcode : 1971

ALL ARE CORDIALLY INVITED

Dr. Thammaiah R. B.

Academic Council Member, Bangalore University
General Secretary, (BUETA)

Nagasudha R.

Co-ordinator, IQAC

Dhareppa Konnur

Head, Dept. of English
Program Co-ordinator

E-mail: hodenglish@sedc.ac.in

Prof. N.S. Satish

Principal

About Seshadripuram Educational Trust :-

The Seshadripuram Educational Trust was founded by two lady educational enthusiasts viz. Smt. Anandamma and Smt. Seethamma started a primary school with about 20 children in two rooms. The institution has grown in all dimensions and today the total strength of students is more than 22,000. The Trust runs 34 educational institutions all over Karnataka from kinder garden to postgraduate courses and research; it has collaborative programs with Universities overseas too. Under the umbrella of our trust more than 1,500 employees are serving.

About Seshadripuram Evening Degree College :-

Seshadripuram Evening Degree College was established in the year 1971, the first college established by the Seshadripuram Educational Trust for higher education which is celebrating its golden jubilee this academic year. It is affiliated to Bengaluru Central University. In the beginning, the College catered basically to the needs of those who were in the employment but had zeal to enhance their educational qualifications and achieve higher standards of learning. The crux of the idea is to let people learn while they earn.

About Bangalore University English Teachers' Association (BUETA) :-

Though there are hundreds of English teachers working in several Under Graduate Colleges affiliated to the Bangalore University, there was no academic body that brought them together with an academic orientation. An association was a long felt need of all the English teachers which was finally given shape and form after several meetings among all teachers and Bangalore University English Teachers' Association (BUETA) was formally launched in December 2013. BUETA was formally inaugurated by the honourable Vice Chancellor of Bangalore University Prof. B. Thimme Gowda at a simple but meaningful ceremony held in the Senate Hall, Central College, Bangalore University. BUETA has several objectives set for furthering the academic progress of the English teachers in the entire state of Karnataka, but will basically function within the limits and colleges covered by Bangalore University, Bengaluru City University and Bang.

About Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Budapest, Hungary :-

Pázmány Péter Catholic University (PPCU) is a private university in and near Budapest, Hungary, belonging to the Catholic Church and recognized by the state. Founded in 1635, the PPCU is one of Hungary's oldest and most prestigious institutions of higher education. The Faculty of Theology was established by archbishop Péter Pázmány in Nagyszombat, the Kingdom of Hungary (today Trnava, Slovakia) in 1635. The university is located in two cities: the Rectors' Office, the Faculty of Theology, the Faculty of Law, the Faculty of Information Technology, and the Postgraduate Institute of Canon-Law are located in Budapest. The campus of the Vitéz János Faculty of Teaching is in Esztergom, just across the Esztergom Basilica. The Faculty of Humanities operated a campus in Piliscsaba, in the vicinity of Budapest from 1994 until end-2020, after which it relocated its departments and courses to Budapest. The university has several research groups and institutes. One of the most important international research programmes of the university is the Syro-Hungarian Archeological Mission, which does the restoration of Margat's crusader fortress.